

Central Prairie Honor Flights
The Guardian Responsibilities
September 2009

Dear Guardian,

Thank you, for your desire to sponsor a World War Two veteran. It is our hope that this will be a rewarding experience for each Veteran, as well as for you. We are looking forward to working with each of you. As we take these flights, it is our intent to make these flights as memorable as we can. We cannot make these flights happen without your assistance.

Guardian Responsibilities throughout the Honor Flight Experience:

- 1- Know your veteran's Limitations and Medications, INCLUDING (i.e. How far they can walk? Need wheelchair? Medical issues? Diabetic issues? Etc.)
- 2- Make sure that your veterans know you
- 3- Know where your assigned veterans are at all times
- 4- Help load and off load the aircraft
- 5- Help load and off load buses
- 6- Help load and off load wheelchairs
- 7- Assist with meal distribution
- 8- Carry first aid kit & Permanent Marker (ID hats, bottled water, souvenirs)
- 9- Hydrate and care for your veterans. (Help them...caps on the bottles, etc!)
- 10- Report all injury and major fatigue issues to your leaders
- 11- Carry a cell phone with you for emergencies
- 12- Know your trip leader, bus driver, & trip doctor's cell phone number
- 13- Assist your veterans to their rooms each evening
- 14- Each Veteran has a red shirt, name tag, and cap for ID purposes
- 15- Zero Tolerance ~ Alcohol, Illegal drugs usage at all during the trip!!!!!!
